

Course Introduction

Critical thinking skills is one of the key elements needed for today's evolving workforce. It elevates a passive recipient to an active learner of information. Such skill set enables one to identify, analyse problems while deriving to a solution in a systematic way. Critical thinking is about questioning and learning with an open mind. This workshop coupled with real life case studies enables participants to bring forth their thought excellence in a systematic manner.

Learning Outcome

- To gain insights and strengthen critical thinking skills
- Understand the clear distinction between the differences is between 'being knowledgeable', 'being intelligent' and 'being wise'.
- Apply a systematic approach to critical thinking
- Ability to derive decisive solutions for your organisation.

Who Should Attend

This workshop is essential for employees of all levels.

Course Outlines

Topic 1. Exploring The Mind

Topic 2. Self-Assessment

Topic 3. Knowledge Vs Wisdom

Topic 4. Exploring Six Thinking Hats

Topic 5. Case Study Analysis

Topic 6. Elements of Thinking

Topic 7. Mental frames

Topic 8. Standards of decision making

Topic 9. Mapping your decision

Topic 10. Applicable tools & resources

Topic 11. Case Study Review

Topic 12. Final Thoughts